

World Health Organization

REGIONAL OFFICE FOR Europe

WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION

(WHO) IN KYRGYZSTAN

what we do

- provide leadership on matters critical to health
- articulate ethical and evidence-based policy options
- set norms and standards; promote and monitor their implementation
- stimulate generation, translation and dissemination of knowledge
- build sustainable institutional capacity
- monitor the health situation and assess health trends
- participate in emergency preparedness and response
- shape the research agenda

our partners

- national authorities and stakeholders
- health workers
- academic institutions
- civil society organizations
- governments and international organizations

WHO HEADQUARTERS, GENEVA, SWITZERLAND

1994 –

WHO and the Government of the Kyrgyz Republic signed a basic agreement for cooperation

2002-2009 –

WHO Health Policy Project implemented to support the national health reform programmes

2003-2006 –

WHO malaria field office established in Osh in response to the malaria epidemic in 2002

2015 –

strengthened country presence with a larger team under leadership of WHO Representative

29 April 1992 –

Kyrgyzstan became member of WHO

1993 –

WHO Information Centre for Central Asian Republics established in Bishkek

1994 –

WHO Liaison Office opened in Bishkek (transformed to Country Office in 2005)

2010-2012 –

WHO field office established in Osh in response to interethnic conflicts in southern regions

WHO COUNTRY OFFICE KYRGYZSTAN

WHO REGIONAL OFFICE FOR EUROPE, COPENHAGEN, DENMARK

We thank the Ministry of Health of Kyrgyzstan, other national stakeholders, international development partners, and donors for their partnership and support
www.euro.who.int/kyrgyzstan