

World Health Organization

REGIONAL OFFICE FOR Europe

PREVENTION AND CONTROL OF COMMUNICABLE DISEASES

THE WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION'S (WHO) CONTRIBUTION IN KYRGYZSTAN

tuberculosis (TB)

- midterm review of the TB programme in 2014 and assistance in the drafting of the new TB programme in 2016-2017
- development of child TB treatment guidelines, 2016
- contributing to the development of the Roadmap for TB services, 2016-2017
- support for implementation of multidrug-resistant TB treatment strategy, 2017

HIV/AIDS

- evaluation of opioid substitution therapy programme, 2015
- support for HIV/AIDS vision paper and national programme drafting, 2016
- review of HIV/AIDS service delivery model, 2016
- assistance in reviewing HIV testing and treatment protocols, 2017

hepatitis

- review of the national hepatitis response, 2016 and 2017
- support for development of clinical protocol on treatment and prevention of viral hepatitis B, C and D and their complications, 2017
- contributing to the development of the national strategy on viral hepatitis 2017-2022

malaria

- elimination of malaria in Kyrgyzstan certified by WHO in 2016

soil-transmitted helminthiasis

- support for elimination of soil-transmitted helminthiasis in Kyrgyzstan including deworming campaigns and prevalence surveys

We thank the Ministry of Health of Kyrgyzstan, other national stakeholders, international development partners, and donors for their partnership and support
www.euro.who.int/kyrgyzstan